…All of Our Shadows Are The Same…"

...will someone kindly explain to me how former V.P. Joe Biden can call himself a democrat when in fact if you read his histories and his current proposed platform he is a republican lite and how does he justify attacking other democrats seeking higher office when he should be attacking the monster in the White House...

...I said I was going to stop this but if you are aren’t paying attention it will hurt you, you need to be aware of what is happening to the ice within the arctic circle, it effects the weather right outside your front door, you need the learn about the Blue Ocean Event that is coming...this link is a good enough place to start, it is my hope that it wakes you up to the fact that there is nothing more important today than Ice Melt, enough said...
These Charts Are Tracking The Big Arctic Melt In What Could Be A Record Summer

Every summer, Arctic sea ice retreats and the Greenland ice sheet shrinks. This year is tracking close to the record melt of 2012.
