The 21st Century Axis of Evil

Stochastic Terrorism

A public figure with access to the airwaves or pulpit demonizes a person or group of persons.

With repetition, the targeted person or group is gradually dehumanized, depicted as loathsome and dangerous - arousing a combustible combination of fear and moral disgust.

Violent images and metaphors, jokes about violence, analogies to past "purges" against reviled groups, use of religious language - all of these typically stop short of an explicit call to arms.

When violence erupts, the public figures who have incited the violence condemn it - claiming no one could possibly have foreseen the "tragedy".
